The Property

Originally dating from the 1950s and more recently extended to enhance the accommodation provided, this superb detached bungalow offers impressive and beautifully presented space sure to appeal to the discerning purchaser.

Saxavord stands within established gardens which extend to approaching one third of an acre and viewing is highly recommended to appreciate it to the full.

Principal features of the property include the spacious and welcoming Reception Hall (almost a room in itself!), the elegant Lounge with its contemporary woodburning stove and the impressive 'L' shaped Living Kitchen with a great range of mahogany units and built-in appliances plus space to dine and relax. Sliding doors open to the lovely Sun Room/Conservatory which enjoys pleasant views across the gardens and there are three excellent size Bedrooms, all capable of accommodating a double bed if required. The Master Bedroom benefits from its own ensuite Shower Room and the family Bathroom is superb with lovely tiling and a bath with an Aqualisa shower above. The bungalow is warmed by gas central heating (the Baxi boiler was only installed in October 2023) and it also features uPVC framed double glazing and a security alarm system including cameras.

The outside space is as impressive as the interior with a double length Garage (complete with electric roller door) and an adjoining Workshop/Store. There is ample space for numerous vehicles and the rear garden includes a shed and greenhouse plus extensive lawns and mature shrubs and trees.

The village of Tetney offers a well stocked general store, a popular Public House, The Plough, and primary schooling. The towns of Grimsby, Louth and Cleethorpes are only a few minutes drive away and a regular bus serves the village.

Large, spacious bungalows are relatively rare and potential buyers are advised to come and view Saxavord as soon as possible - you're bound to be impressed! EPC Rating - D
