The Property

A most appealing detached bungalow with a striking black and white external facade dating back from the 1920s. Set deep into its plot the bungalow occupies a broad frontage approached via a generous paved driveway with endless opportunities for parking and garaging.

This stunning single storey dwelling offers space and comfort in equal measure and great flexibility with three/four Bedrooms, two/three Reception Rooms and two Bathrooms. Over a short period of time the current owners have updated the home to include a modern new kitchen with quality appliances, installed replacement uPVC windows, added extra insulation and generally updated the interior throughout and viewing is highly recommended.

Principal features of the accommodation include a welcoming Reception/Dining Hall extending to 17'0 in length with a feature fireplace and the main family Lounge which is bright and airy and extends to 26'5 in length enjoying dual aspect views. A connecting door leads into the large Kitchen, recently installed in a navy blue and dove grey finish offering plenty of space and a host of built-in appliances.

A second sitting room at the front of the bungalow offers flexibility and would be equally suitable as an additional bedroom or dining space. The inner hall serves the remaining three Bedrooms and two Bathrooms. The principal Bedroom benefits from a large ensuite Bathroom and it has a deep bay window overlooking the rear garden. Completing the accommodation is a further Shower Room with a shower enclosure and skylight window.

The gardens are principally laid to lawn at the front with an additional side garden providing potential for further driveway parking. Neat lawned gardens surround the bungalow to the rear and there is a small patio behind the kitchen and a newly created garden ideal for growing vegetables. The Scartho village centre is within easy reach, offering shopping facilities, tearooms, Public Houses etc and regular buses serve the general area.
